TITLE INDEX TO VOLUME 3

Analysis of Sequential Prolog, Programs, 119
Approach to Natural-Language Semantics in Logic Programming, 329

Basis for Deductive Database Systems. II, 55

Canonical Logic Programs, 143
Comments on "General Failure of Logic Programs", 115
Conjunction in Meta-Restriction Grammar, 299
Consistency of Negation as Failure, 93
Constructive View of PROLOG, 69
Cooperating Rewrite Processes for Natural-Language Analysis, 279

Implementing Parallel Algorithms in Concurrent PROLOG: The MAXFLOW Experience, 157

LOGIN: A Logic Programming Language with Built-In Inheritance, 185

Natural Deduction as Higher-Order Resolution, 237
Negation as Inconsistency. I., 1

Pressing for Parallelism: A PROLOG Program Made Concurrent, 75

Quantitative Deduction and Its Fixpoint Theory, 37

Relation Between Logic and Functional Languages: A Survey, 217

Technique for Doing Lazy Evaluation in Logic, 259
